

School year structure 2019-2020 and payments

- There is no application fee for existing, or new students. When transferring the first payment on time this will be considered as you agreeing to the terms and conditions and automatically reserve your seat.
- The lesson fees will remain the same as in the previous school year for lessons taking place at Pianolessen Amsterdam.
- For piano lessons on location, where the travel time is longer than 10 minutes one-way there is an extra €10 per lesson added.

School year structure and payments:

The 2019-2020 school year will be divided in three separate blocks:

- September to December
- January to April
- May to July.

The last two weeks of the school year can be used to catch-up on missed lessons.

Payments are to be done by bank transfer, latest one week before the start of each new block. Payments in full are preferred, if possible. The option of paying in instalments is available and the total number of lessons will be divided in equal amounts, regardless of how many lessons are in any given month. When paying in instalments every month is to be paid in advance, at least one week before the new month starts. Payments on time will secure a place in the class at a mutually agreed time. Late payments will be subjected to remaining schedule availability. Please remember, tuition is based on enrollment, not attendance.
